To Whom It May Concern:

What a pleasure it has been to work with Breninger Communications. They took the time to explain the entire process we were about to undertake, in terms everyone could understand. Additionally, Russell Breninger was extremely patient with our last minute changes, and most considerate of our deadlines and scheduling needs. The end result has been a great phone system, backed by a company who is still available to answer all questions and service our changing needs (10 months later) in a courteous and expeditious manner. I cannot recommend anyone better.
